

Christopher Flint Named President Of Lincoln Financial Securities Corporation

Lincoln Financial Network (LFN), the retail distribution division of Lincoln Financial Group (NYSE:LNC), announced that Christopher Flint, Senior Vice President, Head of Advisor & Acquisition Strategies for LFN, has been appointed President of Lincoln Financial Securities Corporation (LFS).

In his new role, Flint is responsible for the overall management of the LFS Channel and will work closely with field office management to help market and grow their businesses. He will also continue to manage the recruiting process throughout LFN. Flint reports directly to David Berkowitz, President of Lincoln Financial Network.

"Chris has been a major asset for our organization over the past six years, building an extremely effective and efficient business," said Berkowitz. "I am confident in his leadership and certain he will continue to enhance our value for LFN advisors and the clients they serve."

Prior to joining Lincoln in 2006, Flint served as Senior Vice President of Branch Office Development for Securities America Inc. and Managing Principal of Securities America Wealth Management Group, responsible for identifying and developing growth strategies for the firm. Flint began his career at Securities America Inc. in 1996, serving in various roles including securities trader, technology product manager, technology recruiter, branch office consultant, and technology practice management consultant.

Flint has earned a Bachelor's of Science from the University of Alabama at Birmingham, as well as a Master of Business Administration and Master of Information Systems from Creighton University. He holds Securities Licenses Series 4, 7, 24, 53, 63, and 66 and the CRPC designation.
